

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

NOBODY CAN TELL WHEN YOU
DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or straggled appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. In morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

Jake Schaefer Jr., Near Champion.
DENVER, Colo., Oct. 1.—Before Jake Schaefer, acknowledged to have been the greatest billiardist of his time, died in March 1910 of consumption, he taught his son, Jake Jr. now 21 years of age, to play the game and inspired him with the ambition of following in his famous father's steps.

This month at the Astor Hotel, New York, young Schaefer will play Willie Hoppe for the championship. If Schaefer does not win this year, he will win the championship eventually, declare experts who have seen the wizard's son play.

"My father taught me how to play billiards when I was 13 years old," said Schaefer when he visited his old haunts here recently. "I practice five hours a day when I am home in Chicago. I try to get out for a two mile walk every morning to keep my nerves in trim."

Though Schaefer talks little about his shots it is said he plans eight shots in advance every time. Two years ago he began to attract attention when he was chosen as one of nine players in the champion billiard players' league.

RED SOX FAVORITES IN COMING WORLD'S CONTEST FOR HONORS

BILL CARRIGAN WINS AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT IN UPHILL FIGHT.

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Oh plain, unvarnished "dope" the Red Sox from this comparatively early viewpoint, stack up stronger than the Phillies in the coming world's clash, and probably will, barring injuries, go into the October classic as big a favorite as ever did the Mackmen over the Giants, or the Mackmen over the Braves.

It wasn't luck that gave Bill Carrigan a pennant winner this year. It was plain ordinary grit, plus a couple of tons of sheer fighting, and some rattling good consistent baseball. No manager ever faced an April getaway with a stiffer field to fight against than did this same Bill Carrigan.

Chicago's new sadly crumpled White Sox, reinforced by the metric Collins at second, and with a chucking staff reckoned to be the class of the circuit, started well and set the pace until June, when they had been squelched, a new ogre rose to confront the Boston mentor—the Tigers. And it was some ogre. Cobb was playing the best baseball of his scintillating career. Crawford was slugging with all his old time power. Veatch was playing like a fiend, and Jennings had an infield his first since 1908. All this array of power was backed up with a fair pitching staff. But Bill Carrigan came through. When the time came for a "crucial" series—like the recent one with the Tigers at Boston, which really gave his men the pennant—he went out and won games. There was no cracking under the strain.

Boston has worked its way into the Big Tilt through the classiest field that ever represented Ban Johnson's loop. The Phillies have won a pennant from a field that probably is the weakest that ever represented the National circuit, and that's taking no credit away from Pat Moran, either, because he deserves all the roses that are shed at his red head.

Both the favorites in the National league dropped by the wayside. The Giants never were in the hunt, and the Braves, handicapped by injuries and suspensions, put up a game, but futile fight. Brooklyn threatened for a while, but their opposition was not of the steady variety. The Phillies haven't played flashy ball. They displayed a flash to take the lead early in the season, but since then have played fifty-fifty ball, content in the belief that their enemies didn't have the stuff for a spurt that would overtake them. They were right, for had either the Braves or Superbas possessed a drive of any power at all, the Phils could have been unseated at almost any stage of the race.

And because of this—because Bill Carrigan's clan has fought its way to a pennant through a bunch of hard clubs while Moran has had comparatively easy sailing—because of this, the American league entry will, barring unforeseen events, go into the series a favorite, if for no other reason.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Red Sox Champions.
DETROIT, Oct. 1.—Boston became the American league champions though not playing, through Detroit's loss of the final game with St. Louis 3 to 2. Wellman won his eighth game of the year from the Tigers, and would not have been scored on but for three errors, bunched in one inning.
In the fifth five hits, including a double and triple, were bunched, with a pass, for five tallies. Score:

Good-Night Corns, Good-Boy "Gels-It"

New-Plan Corn Remedy That Never Fails. The Simple, Common Sense Way.

You poor corn-lumpers, with corn-wrinkles and heart pains! Sit down tonight and put a few drops of "Gels-It," the simplest corn remedy in the world, on your corns. You can apply it in just a few seconds,

"Gels-It" Made Corn Pains, It's Sure and Safe, too.

without fuss or trouble. What's the use applying salves that make toes raw and sore, that make corns swell, bandages that make it misery to walk, tape that sticks, greasy ointment, and other contraptions that rid of corns the easy way, quick, simple, sure, new way. That's common sense. Try "Gels-It" also for warts and bunions. "Gels-It" can't hurt—the corn loosens, and comes right off—clean off.

"Gels-It" is sold by all druggists. 25c a box. (Gels-It is a registered trademark of the Gels-It Company, Inc., New York, N. Y.)

SALTS FINE FOR AGING KIDNEYS

WE EAT TOO MUCH MEAT WHICH CLOGS KIDNEYS, THEN THE BACK HURTS.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged, and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the gold of grapes and is harmless, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MUTTON SHOWING STRONGER TONE

(Courtesy Thursday's Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Killers were very slow about taking hold of cattle in the North. Portland yards this morning but there was no change in the general situation. Some fairly good stuff came forward and was quoted at practically the same figures as on Monday.

Cattle market continues to show signs of weakness in the eastern yards. General cattle market range:
Select steers $5.10@5.25
Best bay fed steers 4.25@4.35
Good choice 4.00@4.25
Ordinary to fair 3.80@3.75
Best cows 3.50@3.25
Good to prime 4.50@4.75
Select bulls 4.50@4.75
Fancy bulls 4.25
Ordinary bulls 2.50@3.50
Best calves 7.50@8.00

Mutton Strength Pronounced.
Strength in the mutton trade at North Portland is pronounced with a fair run shown in the yards this morning. General conditions are strong at the prices quoted the first of the week. Some rather good stuff came forward over night.

General mutton market.
Choice spring lambs 7.00
Common spring lambs 6.50@6.75
Choice yearling wethers 5.75
Good yearlings 5.50@5.75
Old wethers 4.75@5.00
Choice light ewes 5.25@5.50
Good ewes 4.50@5.00
Rough heavy ewes 3.75@4.25

Hogs Top at $6.35.
Market for hogs remains very slow and weak at North Portland. It takes exceptional quality at this time to bring about $6.35. For that reason
